

Offer hospitality of craftsmanship.

About a hundred years ago, Marshall B. Lloyd invented the "Lloyd Loom," a new-age furniture surface material. Beauty and gentle feel created by twisting kraft paper around a steel wire and weaving them is still highly popular even after 100 years from its invention.

Today, Kanemitsu adjusts it so that it fits lodging in Japan and delivers it as "Loom Japan."